Are you subject to a divorce or dissolution decree or order or judgment of a court with respect to the child being enrolled?
 Yes No

(Section 3313.672 of the Ohio Revised Code requires, at the time of admission of a student to a public school district whose parents are divorced or the subject of a dissolution, that the “residential parent” file a certified copy of the divorce or dissolution decree or order allocating parental rights and responsibilities and designating a residential parent and legal custodian. A certified copy may be obtained from the clerk of the court that issued the decree or order. The residential parent and legal custodian also must file any modification of any order or decree affecting the allocation of parental rights or the designation of residential parent and legal custodian.)

The district or school has my permission to take photographic images and audio/video recordings of my child to use in print and digital media while participating in district-sponsored events (for example, on the District’s web site, District-sponsored social media sites, school newsletters and other similar publications). I understand that my child’s first and last name may be used to identify him or her in a photograph or audio/video recording.
